

2015 Korean Language Resources

The Present Word in Korean

Korean Present Word is designed for small group study in a narrative style. This quarterly curriculum emphasizes group discussion and participant reflections on the given texts. The goal of the Korean Present Word is to provide a transformational Bible study resource for building mature faith communities.

Themes for the 2015 Korean Present Word

Spring 2015, A Study on John's Gospel: "Grace and Truth: Heavenly Story Encountered on Earth"

John's gospel proclaims that Jesus Christ is the true God and the true human. Jesus as the Word that was with God and became flesh shows the glory of God in full of grace and truth. Jesus Christ came to the world to save sinners and give eternal life to whom believes in him. The story of Jesus Christ is a heavenly story encountered on earth.

Summer 2015, A Study on Psalm: "A Beautiful Life of the Blessed Congregant"

The central message of the Psalm is "Praise the Lord, Hallelujah". It begins with "Blessed are those who and ends with "Praise the Lord". Psalm is a book of prayer and meditation in various life situations and it is a book of praise. The blessed life is completed in praising the Lord. Praising God is the highest calling of God's people.

Fall 2015, A Study of James and John 1-3: "Victorious Faith with Love"

James and John are pastoral epistles sent to diaspora Jewish Christian Communities. They emphasize that authentic faith is living faith in believer's daily life. It is confessional faith in the church as well as living faith in the market.

Winter 2015, A Study on Genesis: "The Beginning Stories of God's Saving Grace"

We can find two fundamental beginnings in Genesis. The one is about the beginning of the world and the other one is the beginning of Israelite as a God's chosen people for salvation of fallen humanity. Both of these beginning stories tell about God's sovereign power and saving grace as the Creator who give life to all creatures and humanity.

Family Community

Family Community is a monthly Bible study resource for small group gatherings of Korean congregations. It is topical study of discipleship, stewardship, evangelism, spirituality and other important areas of Christian life.

2015 The Holy Spirit

The Reformed Faith is a confessional belief in the Triune God as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit leads us to believe in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord and sanctify us to follow the way of disciple of Christ by serving the church as the body of Christ and witnessing the gospel of reconciliation in the world.
