Written by authors of the Hispanic/Latino Presbyterian community, Estudios bíblicos reformados (Reformed Bible studies) is a quarterly publication for adults and youth that is created and produced by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Estudios bíblicos reformados includes:

- Material that reflects the theological beliefs of our Reformed tradition
- Two components: a Bible study for students and a guide for leaders
- Adaptive aids for a younger audience

YEAR THREE: When we use The Apostle's Creed as an affirmation of our faith, we say that we believe "in the Holy Ghost... the church... the communion of saints... and the forgiveness of sins..." Year three will lead students to understand more deeply what this means.
