People Investing in People

The Presbyterian Committee on the Self-Development of People provides grants for groups:

- Oppressed by poverty and social systems
- Working on projects to address community issues
- Looking for long-term improvements to lives and communities
- Group members must initiate, directly benefit from and control the project.

“Without SDOP support, we could not continue doing the work of empowering survivors of domestic violence.”

— Zulma Garcia, Rhode Island Coalition Against Domestic Violence
